ARTRADE shall not be liable for any hypertext links to external websites from the Website. Moreover, any hypertext link to the Website is subject to the prior approval of the Publication Director.

PERSONAL DATA

All personal data collected in the forms published on the Website are, for the most part, recorded and processed by ARTRADE. The main purposes of this processing are: compliance with legal and regulatory obligations, sales promotion, internal management, statistical studies, risk assessment, the fight against money laundering and the financing of terrorism, security and fraud prevention.

At the request of administrative or judicial authorities or official bodies, particularly in the context of the fight against money laundering and the financing of terrorism, these personal data may be communicated.

In addition, the personal data transmitted may be transferred to a country within or outside the European Union for various operations. In the scenario of a transfer to a country outside the European Union, rules ensuring the security and protection of these data have been put in place.

For more information, please consult the ARTRADE data policy, which can be consulted by clicking on the following link <https://artrade.sale/privacy-policy>.

COPYRIGHT

The representation or reproduction, in whole or in part, of the pages, data and any other component of the Website, by any medium or process whatsoever, is prohibited and constitutes an infringement of copyright if it has not been previously authorized by ARTRADE.

SECURITY

It is the responsibility of each Internet user to take appropriate measures to protect his or her computer from contamination by viruses and other malicious computer programs. ARTRADE shall not be held responsible for elements beyond its control and for any damage that may be suffered by the user's terminal, and in particular smartphones, tablets, computers, software, network equipment and any other equipment used to access the Website.
